

The Lion Who Saw Himself in the Water

by

Illustrated by Ingrid Rodriguez

Now, once upon a time there was a lion and his name was Share the Lion. And he was king of all the animals in the jungle.

He had a lovely golden mane on his head, all furry — just like hair, only furry and golden. And he had a lovely golden coat. He used to go about and say “Grrrrrrrrrrrrrr” because that’s how lions talk.

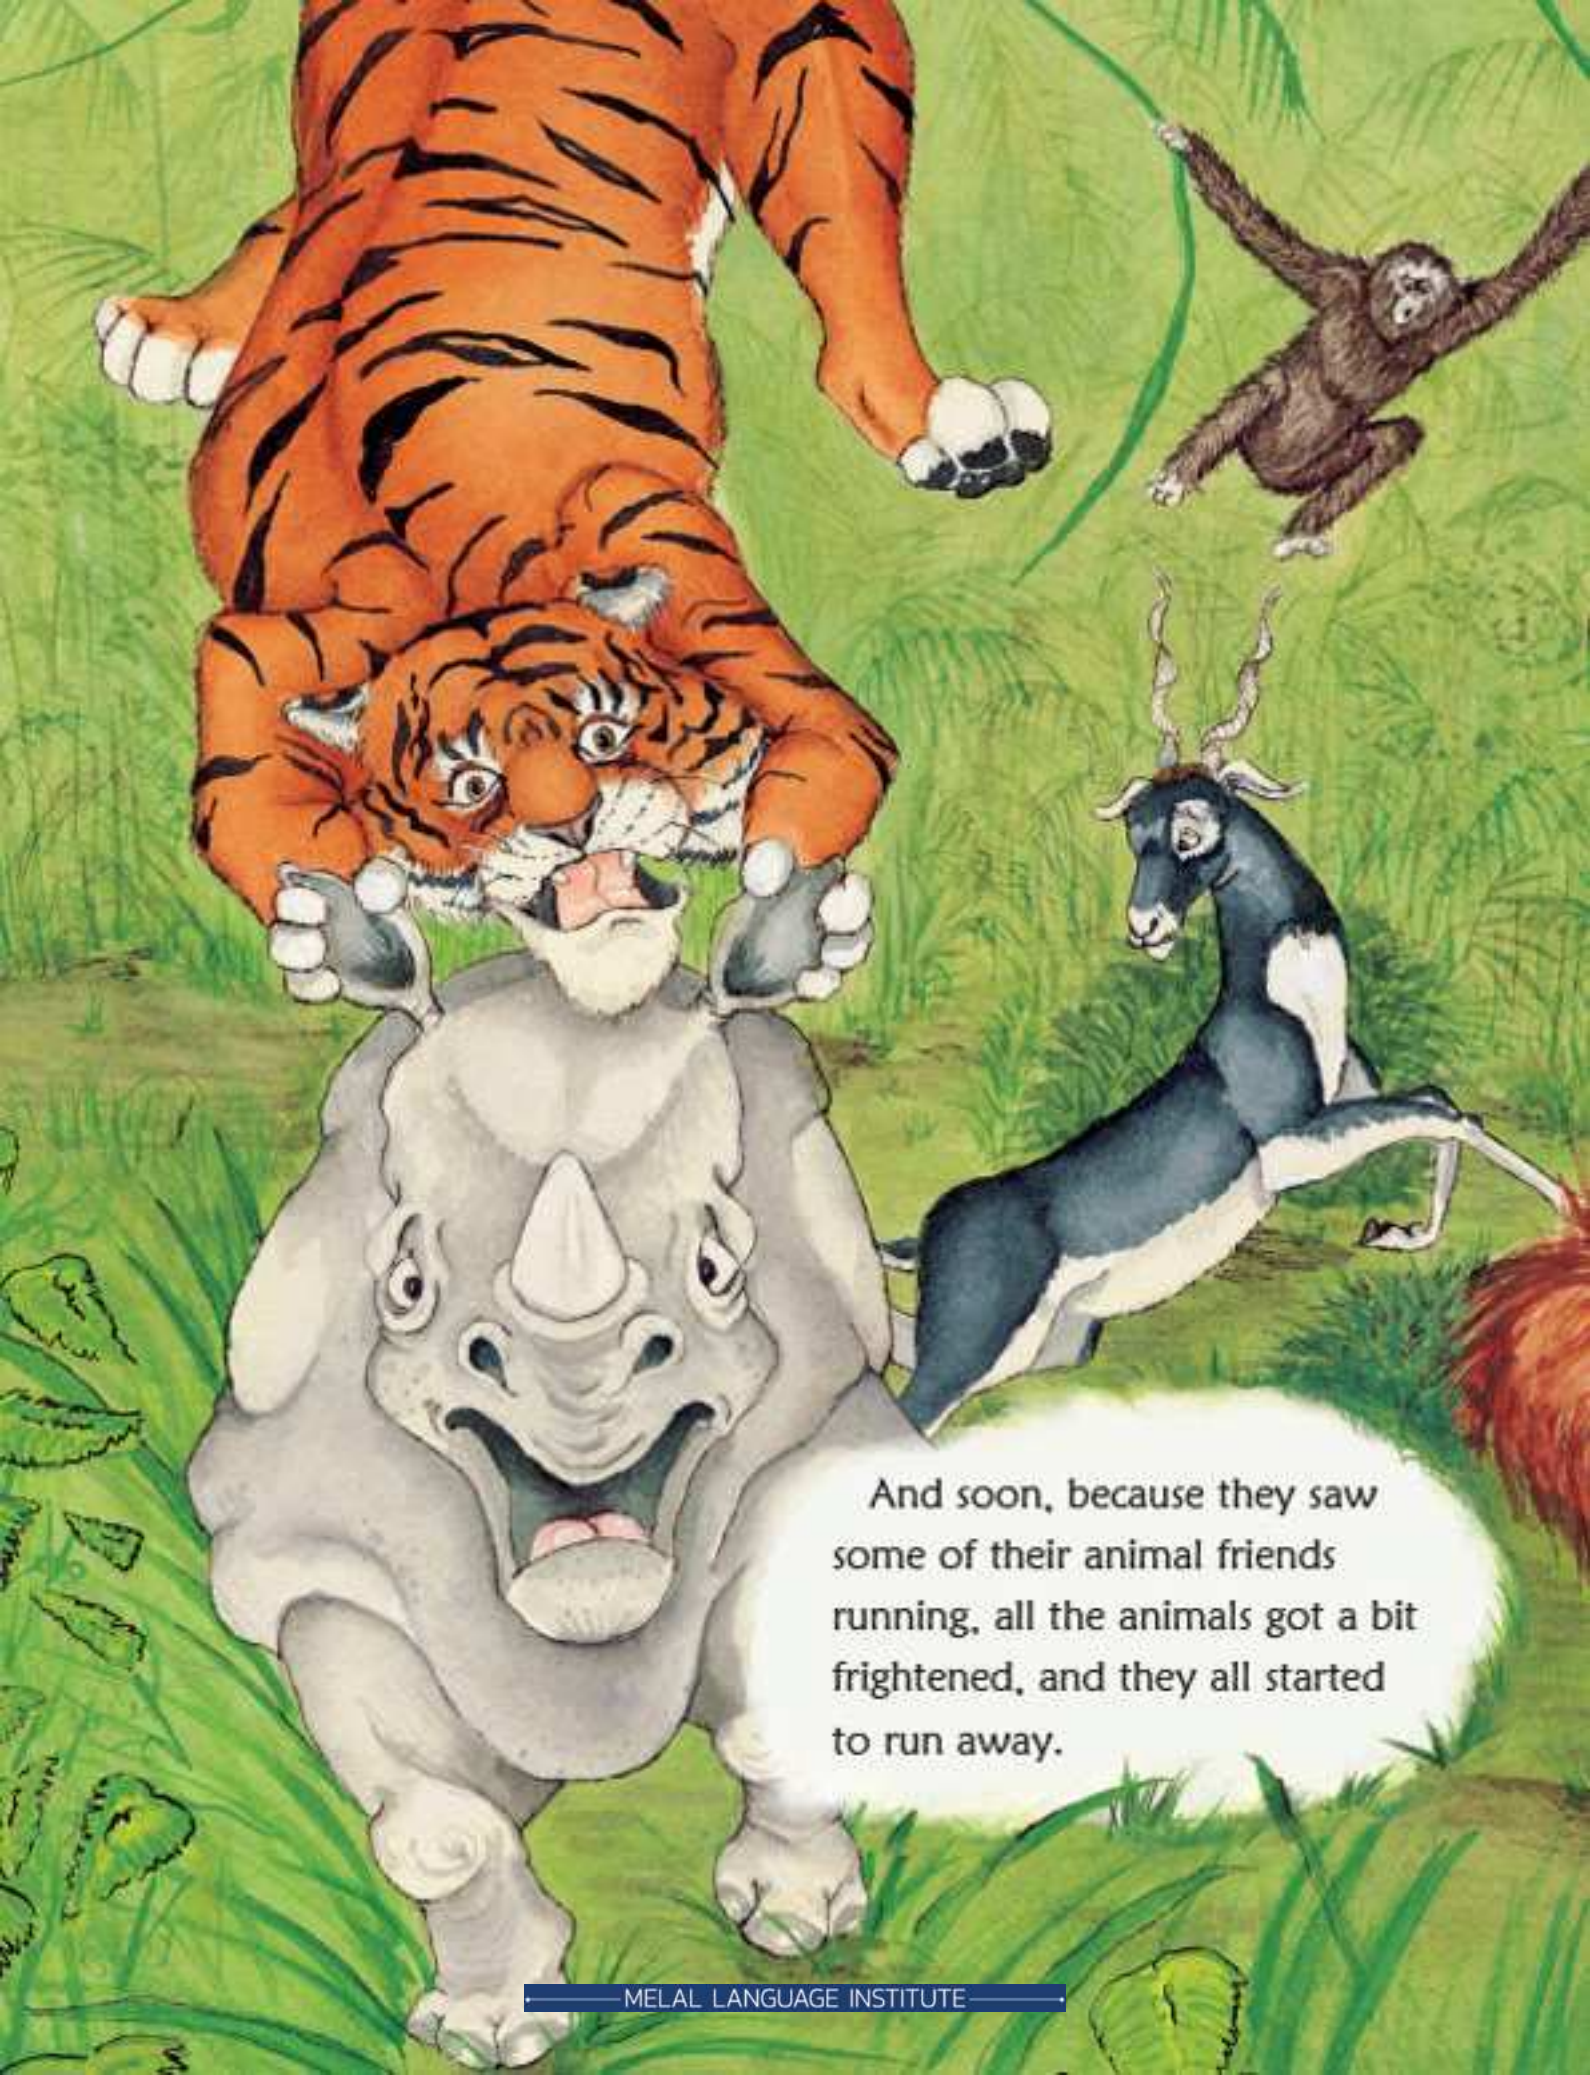

But not all the animals
knew that he talked like that.
And some of them, when they heard him say “Grrrrrrrrrrrr,” were a little frightened, and they ran away.

And soon, because they saw some of their animal friends running, all the animals got a bit frightened, and they all started to run away.
