3 Yes, it is self-explanatory: a waiting room is a room where people wait, e.g. in a railway station or a doctor's surgery.
4 The two words are not exactly synonymous because slim means 'thin in a positive way', whereas thin is often used to suggest that someone needs to put on more weight, so it is not used positively.
5 It's not entirely accurate because a pupil could be at a secondary school or a primary school, and it's actually more common to use the word about children at primary school.
6 Pick up has different senses, so the sentence could mean: 1) I physically picked up the bag from the ground, a chair, etc. or 2) I collected the bag from somewhere.
- 5 Negative words: insulting, disapproving, offensive, inappropriate, swearing
Some slang words may also have a negative meaning, but most slang is not negative.

2 affection 6 inconsiderate
3 show 7 genuine/sincere
4 boast 8 integrity
- 8 possible answers, from Argentina:
1 In my country, you are expected to give your seat to the elderly, pregnant women and people with special needs. The front seats on buses and trains are designated for that purpose, and drivers and conductors can enforce the rule if necessary. I think everybody would agree that it's considerate to give your seat to someone who needs it, but the regulation exists so that even those who are unwilling to give up their seat must do it.

- 2 In general terms, showing affection for your partner in public is acceptable in our society, although of course some people are more reserved than others and prefer not to show their feelings so openly.
- 3 Many people would agree that if you need to show off, you are seeking attention because you lack confidence.
- 4 Nowadays, travelling to far-off places is much more common than in the past, particularly for the young. People share those experiences – mostly on social media – but it's not considered boastful. In fact, most people are eager to hear about expensive holidays!
- 5 I think we used to be kinder and more friendly towards strangers and foreigners in the past. Nowadays, because of the rise in crime rates, most people are wary of strangers.
- 6 I'm afraid that in my country we are notorious for not being punctual! Therefore, we are used to being kept waiting.
- 7 Not all shop assistants are genuinely friendly, but some customers can be really rude and tiresome.
- 8 Most politicians are perceived as lacking integrity, so they are not trusted.

6 Rupert struck me as capable.
7 I think that Ariana has potential.
8 Vicky didn't seem (to be) very motivated.
- 5 possible answers:
1 I'm well informed about politics and economics.
2 I think that people who are conscientious are very important, and we need people like that in our schools, health service and industry.
3 If people are charming towards me, I'm usually charming back to them.
4 I feel confident when I am in control and know what I want to say.
5 It's sometimes a struggle for me to remember people's names when I first meet them, so I can seem rude when I meet them again.
6 If I meet someone who is arrogant, I spend as little time with them as possible.
7 If someone doesn't take me seriously, I don't worry too much. It's their problem, not mine.
8 I don't take to people who are arrogant and immature.
9 In an interview situation, I think I probably come across as quite well informed, but perhaps a bit shy and lacking in confidence.

- 10 If someone says something ridiculous in an interview, I think it could be because they're nervous or don't know what they're talking about.

- 3 I've been having a tough time at work recently. A young man joined the department and for some reason took an instant dislike to me. His desk was close to mine, and he just sat and stared at me without saying a word, which made me feel uncomfortable. Over time, he started to shout at me and became more and more aggressive until I felt quite nervous being near him. It put a big strain on me, and my work began to suffer. One day, I decided it was time to stick up for myself, so I told him his behaviour was terrible. I was shocked when he suddenly started crying and of course, I regretted what I had said to him. He thought that I blamed him for the poor results in the department, when in fact, that wasn't the case. Eventually, things settled down, and we got on much better.

- 2 1 courageous 5 dignity
2 heroine 6 heroic
3 bravery 7 inspirational
4 inspires/inspired 8 spiritual

- 3 1 inspiration/heroine; courageous
2 look/looked; captain; inspired; hero
3 heroine; courage; dignity

4 possible answers:

- When I was growing up, my hero was Ronaldo because I'm a great Manchester United fan, and he played for them when I was in my teens.
- I now look up to my boss at the charity where I work. She has always been very calm and dignified, even when difficult decisions have had to be made.
- My mother was very courageous, especially at the end of her life when she died from cancer at the relatively young age of 50.

- 5 rebel, detest, despise, lose (your temper), disapprove, loathe, bully

- 6 1 disapproval 6 greedy
2 loathe 7 can't bear
3 despicable 8 of
4 rebellious 9 fame
5 misery 10 principles

- 7 1 bully 6 against
2 principle 7 disapprove
3 temper 8 values
4 can't bear 9 greedy
5 rebel; rebellious 10 despise; villain

8 possible answers:

- I think both are possible, but I certainly saw my brother bully my sister when we were young. They're great friends now, though.
- I won't eat rabbit or small birds.
- No, not very often.
- I can't bear drivers who drive too close behind me.
- Yes, I was. As a man, I had long hair, wore strange clothes, and often went on political demonstrations.
- No, it isn't, but I've never done it.

- Yes. I disapprove of my sister's boyfriend. He drinks too much and doesn't treat her well. I hope she leaves him soon.
- Yes, they often do. My parents have a different way of living: more serious, more religious than I am, but we agree on basic values such as honesty, integrity and loyalty.
- Yes, some of them are, but there are also some like Bill and Melinda Gates who are very generous and have spent many millions trying to eradicate malaria.
- I won't name names, but there are one or two politicians, in this country and abroad, that I despise because I think they are responsible for causing a great deal of harm to society.

Unit 21

- 1 peer pressure, nature or nurture? play a part, a broken home, a deprived childhood, a beneficial effect

- 2 1 P 3 N 5 P 7 N
2 P 4 N 6 P 8 N

- 3 1 home 5 impact
2 deprived 6 model
3 pressure 7 crucial
4 nature 8 incentive

4 possible answers:

I'm sure parents play a very important role, but sometimes teenagers are very influenced by their friends, which can be a good or bad thing. I know my aunt and uncle played a crucial role in my childhood.

Peer pressure is very significant, I agree, particularly with social networking. It can be dangerous, too.

In general, I think positive incentives, such as praise or the possibility of more freedom, are better for young people.

I know two or three people who either came from a broken home or had a deprived childhood. One has done brilliantly in life, and one has had a few problems, but is doing his best to deal with them. So I agree, these factors don't necessarily have a damaging effect.

- 5 1 sympathetic 5 pace
2 teenager 6 consistent
3 through 7 adulthood
4 adolescence 8 grown-up

- 6 1 wise 7 wisdom
2 cope 8 time; pace
3 phase 9 adult
4 supportive 10 sympathy
5 transition 11 conduct
6 consistent

- 7 1 Yes, that's always true.
2 No, I think the best way to cope with problems is to think about solutions in a positive way.
3 I don't think so. I think middle age is a difficult phase.
4 Yes, that's crucial.
5 No, it's very difficult. Adolescents have so much to learn and so many pressures.
6 I think that's true.
7 On the whole, I agree.
8 I'm not sure about this. Sometimes you have to take time to think, but occasionally it's not possible. Making mistakes isn't bad if you learn from them.
9 Yes, I agree.
10 I agree. Life can be difficult for them, but in the end, things get better.
11 I think that's true, but it doesn't mean we should always accept bad conduct from teenagers. They must also take some responsibility for their actions.

Unit 22

 5 apparent/obvious 10 tendency
- 5 1 remind you of 5 hard to say
 2 criticism 6 stepfather
 3 in her father's footsteps 7 personally
 4 brought up / raised 8 late

6 possible answers:

- I think I resemble my father more than my mother.
- No, not really. I can see characteristics in both my mother and father which I share.
- I have a sister, and we are alike in that we both have brown hair, brown eyes and fair skin. Our characters are completely different, though.
- All the members of my family are very punctual and get very impatient if anyone else is late.
- I think there is perhaps some truth in the idea that daughters become more like their mothers and sons become more like their fathers. However, living in different times also makes us different from our parents in terms of our attitudes to things.
- If we're honest, I don't think anyone likes being criticized, but I think it's something people learn to accept a bit more as they get older. That has been my case, I think.

Unit 23

 5 discourteous
- 4 possible answers, from India:
- Yes, it is quite customary to eat chicken legs or wings with your fingers at home in India. However, when eating outside, at a restaurant or somebody else's home, we use cutlery.
 - Yes, Indian parents think it's important for children to have good table manners.
 - No, in India it is not considered bad manners to eat everything you are given. Usually, we are encouraged to take as much food as we can eat. Wasting food is considered bad manners.
 - Yes, it is viewed as polite to offer food to the elderly first.
 - Yes, it is discourteous to start eating your food before others have been served.

- Yes, as a guest, it would be offensive to criticize the host's food.
- Talking with your mouth full might not be considered very sophisticated in India.
- It is customary among young people, especially among friends, to split the bill in restaurants in India.
- Yes, it is viewed as rude to lick your knife, fork or spoon when you have finished eating, or stick your own knife, fork or spoon into dishes of food for the whole table.

 6 asparagus 12 broccoli
- 3 1 vegetable 4 dried
 2 herb 5 spice
 3 nut 6 pulse
- 4 1 avocado, mango, apricot
 2 All the vegetables can be eaten cooked. Celery and spinach are also eaten raw in the UK in salads. Courgette and broccoli can be eaten raw, but that is rare in the UK.
 3 To add flavour.
 4 They are both considered to be healthy.

5 possible answers, from Argentina:

- All of these are usually grown in my country, Argentina:
 mangoes grapefruit
 aubergines spinach
 beetroot apricots
 avocados broccoli
 raspberries lentils
 asparagus basil
 watermelons nuts
 courgettes almonds
- I have tried everything!
- fruit: tangerines, oranges, apples, quinces, grapes, pears vegetables: Brussels sprouts, carrots, onions, cauliflower, cabbages, leeks

4 flour, sugar, sometimes rice or large pieces of meat
5 bread, ham, other meat, some vegetables
6 meat
7 meat
8 some vegetables and some fruit, e.g. carrots, potatoes, apples, pears

9 possible answers, from Argentina:

I have a casserole, a food processor, a whisk, a colander, a grater, a peeler, a lemon squeezer, a corkscrew, kitchen scales and a carving knife.

I don't have a frying pan or a deep-fat fryer, but they wouldn't be useful because I don't like fried food!!

7 possible answers:

- Always real coffee.
- Usually a cup, but sometimes a mug.
- I hardly ever eat cereal. I usually have toast and coffee for breakfast.
- I sometimes take a packed lunch if I'm travelling.
- I work from home so I never eat in a canteen now – but I used to.
- I usually eat fresh food, but I probably heat up prepared food once or twice a week.
- No, hardly ever.
- I go to one of two or three of my favourite restaurants in town.
- No, never. I always eat at the table, but I used to eat on my lap a lot when I was a teenager and a student at university.

- | | |
|---------------------|---------------|
| 3 1 steering wheel | 4 headlights |
| 2 boot | 5 wing mirror |
| 3 windscreen wipers | 6 road sign |

4 possible answers, from China:

- There are some zebra crossings in my city, Hong Kong. Motorists always stop for pedestrians.
- I don't drive, so I don't use pay and display machines. My friends who drive usually pay by a stored-value smart-card. Some people still pay with coins if the machine allows.
- There are very few traffic wardens in Hong Kong. If there is one to direct the traffic due to special conditions, drivers and pedestrians must follow their instructions.
- We do not fit special tyres on our car in the winter because it does not snow here.
- Automatic headlights and windscreen wipers are helpful, especially windscreen wipers as it rains quite often here.
- Some people park on the pavement here, though it is not allowed.

8 possible answers:

- Yes, I agree and I don't try to overtake on a bridge.
- No, you shouldn't, but sometimes I do.
- Yes, I agree and, where possible, I always do.
- Of course you should, but I think many motorists carry on driving when they are tired.
- That's true.
- That sounds like good advice. Fortunately, I've never been in that situation. I have skidded, but only for a moment, and I've never lost control of the car.
- Personally I agree, but people who like driving often prefer manual cars.

Unit 27

4 closely 10 significant
5 dependent 11 widespread
6 heatwave
- 7 possible answers, from Australia:
1 The weather in Australia varies enormously depending on what part of the country you live in. In Sydney, where I live, winters are mostly mild. The summers are generally long and hot, and can be quite humid. Torrential rain and thunderstorms with lots of lightning are quite common.
2 The long summers and mild winters make it easy to spend a lot of time outdoors, and I think make people more relaxed than in cold countries.
3 It's never bitterly cold in Sydney, and thick fogs are rare. It can be cloudy and dull, but is more often sunny.

- 3 possible answers (for a man):
1 Nothing in silk, but I have a brown suede jacket and a pair of black suede shoes.
2 I do wear sandals if it is hot, but I don't like them very much.
3 I don't wear short-sleeved shirts much. I usually just roll up the sleeves on my long-sleeved shirts.
4 Nobody in my family wears a cap, but my grandfather used to when he was alive.
5 I've got a couple of check shirts and a couple of striped shirts, but the majority are plain.
6 I don't wear V-neck jumpers much, but I've got a woollen sleeveless cardigan and a black and grey waistcoat.

- 6 possible answers (for a woman):
1 I went to one hen party. I was the oldest person there and I felt a bit embarrassed because they all made a lot of noise and drank a bit too much.
2 I went to one fancy-dress party dressed as a soldier. People thought that was a bit strange because I'm more of a pacifist.
3 I don't get that many chances to dress up nowadays, so when I do, I really enjoy it.
4 I tend to buy outfits for special occasions, like weddings or parties, but most of the time I just buy individual items of clothing.
5 Yes, I do. I generally wear a top and maybe a jumper, jeans and trainers.
6 I like barbecues because they are usually very casual affairs, and you can wear what you like.

- 2 bunk beds, vacuum cleaner, bookcase, central heating, dustbin, smoke alarm, doorbell, ironing board, chest of drawers, letter box
- 3 suggested answers (others may be possible):
one hand: doorbell, plug
two hands: broom, dustbin (one hand to open the lid and one to put the rubbish into it) one or two hands: Hoover / vacuum cleaner no hands: doormat, radiator, socket (using one hand to put a plug in the socket)
- 4 1 broom 6 dustbin
2 radiator 7 drawers
3 stool 8 Hoover
4 socket 9 bunk
5 (door)mat 10 box

5 possible answers:

I've got all of those things in my house except for bunk beds. I've got two smoke alarms: one in the kitchen and one in the hall. I've got a letter box, but it isn't in the front door: it's on the wall next to the front door.

4 possible answers:

- 1 I'm a fairly heavy sleeper.
- 2 I own a pair of pyjamas, but I usually wear shorts and a T-shirt in bed.
- 3 I hardly ever set an alarm because I always wake up about the same time.
- 4 It's quite unusual, but yes I do. I usually wake up and get up almost immediately.
- 5 No, I never have a lie-in.
- 6 Yes, my wife tells me I snore sometimes.
- 7 I have taken sleeping pills to help me on long plane or train journeys.
- 8 I never go camping so I don't own a sleeping bag.

5 The pronunciation is different in: provided and insomnia.

6 The pronunciation is different in: as long as.

| | 2 as long as / provided that | 6 my mind |
| | 3 like a log | 7 establish |
| | 4 stick | 8 restricted |
| | | 9 disturbed |

9 possible answers:

- 1 I usually sleep like a log, but not in different beds, e.g. on holiday.
- 2 That's true for me – I often have a restless night if I eat very late.
- 3 I don't work late so that doesn't restrict the amount of time I sleep.
- 4 I don't get irritable after just one bad night, but I'm not nice to be around after two!

- 5 I think it is important to establish a good routine for sleep.
- 6 No, that's not true for me – I don't need to be in total darkness to sleep.
- 7 I don't suffer from insomnia, but I feel sorry for those who do.
- 8 I used to have a nap in the afternoon, but not any longer.
- 9 Yes, I don't sleep as well if I have things on my mind.

| | 8 awareness | | |

4 possible answers:

I don't keep a record of my outgoings, but I check my bank statements online a couple of times a week so I know more or less what I spend.

I always keep my account in credit; I'm never overdrawn.

I have an arrangement with my bank so that my credit card bills are paid automatically at the end of the month.

I do check my bank statements but I don't always look carefully at all the different transactions.

I wouldn't say I was cautious with money, and I do waste money on food that I buy and don't always eat. However, I don't think I waste large sums of money.

Unit 33

- 1 suggested answers:
involves violence: manslaughter, rape may involve violence: mugging, kidnapping, arson (if people are killed or injured in the fire) doesn't involve violence: shoplifting, bribery, fraud
- 2 usually involved with money: fraud, mugging, bribery, blackmail, kidnapping, shoplifting (stealing goods which are worth money)
- 3

1 shoplifter	4 kidnapper
2 blackmailer	5 rapist
3 arsonist	6 mugger
- 4

1 mugged	6 raping
2 manslaughter	7 bribed
3 kidnapped	8 deliberate/intentional
4 shoplifters	9 blackmailed
5 threatened	10 fraud
- 5 suggested answers:
a negative meaning: slum, gang, abuse, neglect, penalty, harsh
- 6

1 slum	5 abuse
2 neglected	6 offenders
3 discipline	7 morals
4 gang	8 attraction
- 7
 - 1 parental responsibility
 - 2 suffered abuse (also possible: been abused)
 - 3 discipline
 - 4 moral issue
 - 5 harsher penalties
 - 6 drifted into crime
 - 7 neglect
 - 8 attraction
- 8 possible answers, from Kenya:
 I disagree. Crime rates are high in estates where the middle class live as well as in slum areas. Gadgets such as mobile phones, tablets and laptops are easy targets for criminals. Many criminals blame parental neglect, yet it is a lack of discipline on their part. There have been instances of pickpockets making away with gadgets such as mobile phones on busy streets and laptops stolen from public offices.
 Crimes are also committed by people who aren't poor because they offer an easy way to make money and live a good life. People who abuse alcohol and drugs often drift into crime because they steal to get money to buy their next dose. What is needed are harsh penalties for offenders which will discourage others and prove that crime does not pay.

Unit 34

- 1 suggested answers:
usually negative: regret, filthy, litter, depressing, homeless
These words can be negative, but it depends on the context: abandon, damp, hang around, graffiti, concerned
- 2

1 dirty	5 wet
2 poor	6 worried
3 sorry	7 sad
4 ground	8 writing and/or drawing
- 3

1 homeless	6 depressing
2 passage	7 hanging
3 concern	8 regretted
4 youths
5 graffiti

4 possible answers, from Poland:

litter on the ground: Interestingly, I often see litter on the ground near dustbins in a park near my home during weekends. I suppose the park cleaning service doesn't work at weekends and this is the reason why there is so much abandoned litter. And obviously, such a sight is a drawback of walking in the park on Sunday. A real shame. But on the whole, I don't think we have much litter in the street, not compared to some other countries.

graffiti: Yes, quite a lot. Some of it falls under the category of murals. They are a nice artistic expression. But actually there are quite a lot of spray 'signatures', not representing anything – just lines, not meaning anything – a rather depressing sight. Another category is often linked with supporting e.g. a football team or degrading/disrespecting it. Some texts on walls are political statements.

homeless people sleeping in the street: One can see homeless people in the streets but not sleeping. They sleep in parks or deserted houses but not really in the streets. You can sometimes see homeless people sitting in passages in the city centre.

filthy pavements: Yes, where filth is created by unfavourable weather conditions such as melting snow, or mud because of torrential rain.

gangs of youths: I suppose in some very specific districts of a bigger city, but on the whole gangs of youths hanging around are not a big problem in Poland.

- 7 possible answers:
 - 1 It's quite built-up because it's not far from the centre, but many houses have a garden, and there are two parks, so there is still a feeling of space.
 - 2 It's surrounded by garden on three sides, with a road on the fourth side.
 - 3 We have quite a few shops nearby: a chemist's, a florist's, a small supermarket, a deli, and one or two others.
 - 4 It's very convenient for me because I can walk into town in ten minutes.
 - 5 I suppose the main drawbacks are that it is on a hill so the walk home is all uphill, and many residents complain about the shortage of parking.
 - 6 As time goes on I think the district will improve because councils are more aware of the environment than they used to be, and I've noticed that the shops are gradually getting better.

 - 2 They only use machines to do some work. Most of the work is done by hand.
 - 3 Farmers here keep cows, pigs, chickens, ducks and fish.
 - 4 Most farms here grow vegetables, such as Chinese kale, Tientsin cabbage and green cucumber. Some grow fruit, such as guava, green papaya and red dragon fruit. Very few of them grow cereals.
 - 5 Very few people here earn a living from farming.
 - 6 There is no shortage of labour here, but not many people want to do farming work.

| | 2 hall | 6 | put in / install |
| | 3 plan | | |

4 possible answers, from the Czech Republic:

- Yes, especially terraced houses. They've been here for centuries: the old ones are usually single-storey buildings forming a line along the main street in a village and having a large garden or even an orchard behind the house; the modern ones are higher, often two-storey buildings, sometimes with an attic and a tiny front and a small back garden where the families relax and enjoy barbecues and meals in the summer. Semi-detached houses are less common, but we do have them, especially on the outskirts of cities. Their bonus is more privacy than in the terraced houses but, of course, the prices are usually higher.
- No, not really. The entrance hall is mostly small, even tiny, with a lot of doors and is simply furnished with a wall rack and a shoe rack or cupboard.
- Open-plan design is not very popular in our homes. In most homes, there's one large room, which serves as a living-room, dining-room and a kitchen, and a number of smaller rooms which provide privacy to the family members. Open-plan flats are usually very modern and spacious and are often built in reconstructed areas of big cities. They are either offered for rent or for sale, but because of the high prices, the buyer normally applies for a mortgage.
- Yes, a lot of people do, especially young people. But to get the mortgage you need to prove you have a permanent job and the amount of the mortgage depends on how much you earn.
- Some people still do the decorating themselves – either because they enjoy doing things on their own, or because of the cost. But nowadays, more and more people have the decorating, and cleaning afterwards, done for them.
- It depends, of course. If a young couple buy a home, they often need to save before they can make some bigger changes. A lot of bathrooms and kitchens are installed in old high-rise blocks of flats, which are in a somewhat dilapidated condition. Sometimes the young people move into a home which used to be owned by their grandparents, so they refurbish the whole place. Also, a lot of people decide to replace their old kitchen or bathroom when their family situation changes, for example when they look after an old relative or their children leave home, or they decide to extend their living area because a child marries and/or has a baby.

| | 3 storage | 8 | storey (also possible: floor) |
| | 4 deposit | | |
| | 5 extension | | |

8 possible answers, from the Czech Republic:

- Yes, it is, especially in big cities. People usually want to buy a flat or house if they believe it's for a lifetime. If they come to the city to work or study, they usually rent a flat. Young people often live in rented flats until they start a family, then they look for a place to buy. And, of course, there are people who can never afford to buy a place of their own.
- In the past, almost all the flats offered for rent were unfurnished. But with the changing lifestyle, a lot of flats, especially in big cities, are offered furnished and with all modern conveniences.
- No, the length of contracts varies. It depends on the renter and landlord's agreement. The contract can be signed for a few months and for many years. But included in the contract, there are always conditions under which any of the parties can terminate the contract, and also a common condition is a deposit of three months' rent which can be used to cover the cost of any damage caused by the renter.
- Yes, usually they are, on condition the renter has caused no problems and the landlord has no other plans with the flat, of course.

- 6 possible answers, from Argentina:
1 I think that, as with all art forms, what matters is how we relate to the piece – what the song means to us personally. There are many reasons why a song might be considered great – it might be the rhythm, the lyrics, the melody, or a combination of all three.
2 A great pop song should be relevant to the listeners, which means that audiences can personally engage with the feelings evoked in the song. That is why most hits deal with basic human emotions, like love in all its forms.
3 As I'm not a musician myself I tend to focus on the lyrics.
4 I'm always humming or singing along to my favourite songs.
5 I think the sentiment behind a song is what can make a song truly popular. But of course there are exceptions to this – some very repetitive and simple songs have become hits.
6 I would say most songs by The Beatles have stood the test of time. If I had to write a list, I would include:
We can work it out (The Beatles)
I guess that's why they call it the Blues (Elton John)
Under my skin (Frank Sinatra)
Suspicious Minds (Elvis)
There must be an angel (Eurythmics)
Land of Confusion (Genesis)

- 4 possible answers, from Argentina:
I would say that in my country, sometimes parties are prepared beforehand, which of course gives the hosts the chance to enjoy the party more, but sometimes gatherings are kind of improvised.
Guests usually contribute with drinks or snacks. I have never seen bouncers in private parties, but it sounds like a good idea – now with people posting everything on social media, gatecrashing is a risk.
If people know one another, things get going quickly. Music can certainly liven up any event, particularly live music!
Of course, there is always a lot to clear up afterwards, but if you feel your guests have had a good time, it's really worth it.

- 6 possible answers, from Hungary:
1 We have many different parties showing the whole spectrum of political views from right-wing to left-wing. Fortunately, extremist parties are not among the major political players and do not have seats in the Parliament.
2 It depends on the particular issue we are talking about. If I find it necessary, I cannot refrain from calling/voting for radical change.
3 In many cases maintaining the status quo would be quite boring. When it comes to politics, I can imagine situations where radically changing the existing order is the only way out.

- 4 I am not that much into politics so I cannot really say. What I find unacceptable is when people criticize the existing government just because they are in power. I believe in studying a given issue from as many aspects as possible and forming an informed opinion based on facts rather than on my emotions.
- 5 Yes, I strongly believe in personal and economic freedom, and am quite tolerant towards people whose views differ from mine.

- 6 possible answers, from the Czech Republic:
1 Yes. Each town has a mayor. In big cities they are called Lord Mayor. Elections take place every four years. In these local elections, people vote for the future members of the council. Then, at their first meeting, the elected councillors choose the mayor. He/She is usually the head of the party who won the majority of seats and his/her deputies are heads of the coalition parties.
2 Yes, it is. The bigger the town, the more influence the mayor has.
3 The mayor cannot decide much on their own. They always act in compliance with the decisions of the town council. They take decisions on the town's development, approve its budget, and establish and abolish organizations such as the local police, technical services which look after the cleaning of the town, collection and sorting of rubbish, parks and other green spaces, cultural centres, and sports centres and facilities. They are also responsible for kindergardens and basic schools, and a lot more. The mayor is the one to sign the most important documents and bears the responsibility for matters they refer to.

Your GP refers you to a specialist
You get a free prescription for some drugs but some are paid for. People who are insured get some discount. I also think you get some discount if you are a pensioner.
When you suspect that a doctor has made a mistake and it is too late to have it fixed by him/her, you can sue the doctor for negligence, damages, etc.
In order to become a participant in a clinical trial, you need to be referred by your GP or a specialist.
I think in certain cases you can have cosmetic surgery for free, e.g. when it is treatment after an accident or an operation.

3 deterrent 7 crisis
4 capital 8 justice; justice

4 possible answers:

- I don't know the answer to that, but I think we could rehabilitate more offenders than we do at present.
- There are many possible reasons: not enough support from friends, family or the state; the person can't get a job and is short of money, mixing with the wrong kind of people; crime becomes a way of life, etc.
- Clearly it isn't a very effective deterrent if a significant number reoffend.
- No, I have never believed in capital punishment.
- I would like to abolish solitary confinement.
- The answer is probably 'no', but I can understand people wanting revenge; it's human nature in some situations and circumstances.
- Yes, I believe it is. I think we currently lock up more people in the UK than any other European country. The prisons cannot cope with the numbers; they are overcrowded.
- I believe in the need for the criminal justice system, but justice – the fair treatment of people – is not easy to achieve.

7 possible answer:

I think we should have more prisons based on these principles. It wouldn't work for everyone and perhaps not a majority, but it could be successful in rehabilitating a good proportion of offenders because it works on the principle that if you treat people like decent human beings, there is a good chance they will then behave like decent human beings.

4 possible answers, from China:

- 1 Acre and hectare are commonly used to describe an area of land in our language. For smaller areas, we often use square foot and square metre.
2 We don't have any large estates in my city, Hong Kong.
3 There is no equivalent of a lord in our country.
4 Hong Kong is divided into districts. Our country is divided into provinces, and in each province there are many cities and counties.
5 We should call the emergency line if someone dies at home of natural causes. Police then come to confirm the case. And an ambulance is sent to collect the body and provide all the necessary assistance.

1 Yes, I used to do manual work in my holidays when I was at university, and I've been self-employed for a number of years.
2 I think it would be fun to be a handyman: working for yourself, doing varied jobs, and often spending time solving problems for other people.
3 I am self-employed and prefer it that way.
4 I don't need an incentive to work hard if I enjoy what I'm doing. If I didn't enjoy my job, then I would need incentives, such as a good salary or long holidays.
5 No, I'm not very good at it, but I quite like it for short

4 possible answers:

I was a freelance illustrator for four years. I enjoyed similar advantages such as being able to choose what work to take on and being my own boss. Occasionally I encountered a degree of isolation as my work often got in the way of my social life. Over the years, I came to appreciate that my income was not guaranteed and that I had to take on extra work when it was available. I was able to take care of my family, open a restaurant, which my wife runs, and buy a car. I don't miss the additional benefits of a regular job because I have health insurance and I am enrolled in a pension scheme.

8 possible answers:

In general, I agree with the pros and cons above, although a good team shouldn't suppress individual enterprise and initiative.

Other advantages of working in a group:

- 1 It can improve your communication skills.
- 2 Individuals can learn from other members of the group and improve their skills.

Other disadvantages are:

- 1 Some individuals become very competitive with other individuals, and this can damage the effectiveness of the team.
- 2 If members of the team do not agree on the goals, it can be hard to make progress.

5 leave 10 minimum; leave

6 possible answers:

- 1 In my job, I don't get a commission because I'm not a salesman, and I don't get health or dental insurance either. However, I get the other perks mentioned. The annual bonus varies from year to year, but we usually get one. The other benefit I get is the opportunity to eat in a subsidized canteen, where the food is quite good and very cheap. The most important benefit for me is the company pension because it's worth the most money.
- 2 I enjoy all the rights mentioned, and I believe everyone should have those rights.
- 3 (answer from a 17-year-old still at school) I like the sound of an annual bonus, especially if it comes at Christmas when I need more money. I would also like paid sick leave if I was ill. I don't know much about pensions but my parents are always telling me they're important, so that would be good too.

5 delegate 10 note it down
6 make a note 11 at a time

4 possible answers:

I think it is a good idea to make a note of tasks you need to do, but I don't think it is necessary to put reminders everywhere. Prioritizing is also important, but setting deadlines for every task is very difficult. I think it's also difficult sometimes to stick to one thing at a time. Sometimes you just have to do two things at the same time. I try to stick to my priorities. That's important. And you should always delegate if you can. Anticipating problems is not easy.

8 possible answers:

- 1 Fortunately, I don't get a constant stream of interruptions, but I find that even one or two can be a bit frustrating.
- 2 I'm usually quite productive in the morning, but less so in the afternoon.

- 3 I think my productivity would be improved if we had air conditioning. In the summer it gets very hot where I work, and it makes me feel a bit sleepy.

7 possible answers:

- 1 Yes, I have come top in a few exams over the years.
- 2 Yes, I just scraped through an important maths exam when I was 16.
- 3 No, but I dropped out of a Spanish course because I was too busy with work.
- 4 Actually, passing my driving test was a struggle because I failed the first time.
- 5 Yes, I had a serious row with someone at work because they didn't give me an opportunity to apply for a job that I wanted. We have a better relationship now, but for a long time we didn't.
- 6 Yes, I stopped doing yoga because I didn't think I was getting any better.

3 possible answers:

Litter on the streets is not a major problem, but it's not an easy problem to resolve because some people will always drop litter. It's a question of education, I think.

Graffiti is a major problem in some places, but where I live they are tackling it quite successfully. If you see graffiti, you can call a number, and they will send a team to clean it off. It seems to work.

Household rubbish is a growing problem and will only be resolved when we stop using so much plastic and packaging around everything we buy.

Some cities are now seriously starting to address the problem of pollution by introducing charges for vehicles with high pollution levels.

Parking is another growing problem as we increase the number of cars in society. Most cities in England are tackling it by increasing out of town parking areas to encourage people to get buses into the town centre.

Bullying has always been present, especially in schools. More schools are facing up to the problem now with both punishments for offenders and counselling for victims.

6 possible answers:

I think teenagers are often unhappy about their appearance (I was), and this is bad for their self-esteem. I also agree that it is difficult to accept any kind of failure, and equally difficult to keep things in perspective.

Another problem for teenagers now is the significance of social media. This causes massive peer pressure to do what others do. It is easy in these circumstances for teenagers to exaggerate the significance of various problems.

4 possible answers:

I think time definitely flies when you're older.

I wouldn't say I get depressed generally, but certain events make me depressed from time to time, such as political events, social issues or family issues.

That's not true for me because I started a pension some years ago. However, it's probably about time I increased the amount of money I put into my pension.

I never wanted to be a journalist, but at one time I wanted to be a professional rugby player.

No, that's not true. I do certain things at the last minute such as sending people birthday cards, but in general I'm quite organized.

That's not true for me because I went to university.

In general that's true, though I sometimes think about how I might be happier.

I am very punctual but I'm not sure it's a great virtue.

No, that's not true for me. I often plan for the future.

I'm sure that's true. I can think of several times in my life when I didn't work as hard as I should've done.

possible answers, from Hungary:

- 1 To be honest, I find it hard to recall true memories of my early childhood. My parents were keen photographers so they got a shot of practically every step my sister and I took. Whenever I try to look back on my childhood, I can mostly recall the photos I have seen many times since then. This feels sad because I will never know if the memory would have faded had it not been for the photo immortalizing the moment.
- 2 I would say it is the Christmas Eves we used to have when I was a child. We would wait outside the living room for my father to ring the bell, which meant we were allowed to go in and have a look at the glistening tree and the neatly wrapped presents underneath. We would step in and with my mother taking the lead we would start singing. It was pure magic for me back then.
- 3 It depends on the emotion attached to the event. I tend to avoid recalling embarrassing situations or events that went particularly badly for me. What I remember most vividly is situations where I excelled in something or achieved my goals, however insignificant they appear now.
- 4 I prefer looking ahead, but now and again certain smells or sights or people I happen to meet evoke some memories, and in those moments I do enjoy looking back and recalling things that I have experienced or places I have been to. It's also great to reminisce in the company of old friends and have a laugh about the past we shared. I'm obviously talking about good memories. As for the unpleasant ones, they're probably not worth dwelling on, so I just try to erase them from my memory.

5 possible answers:

- 1 I agree that you shouldn't judge a book by its cover, and I think that prevention is better than cure. I also find there is a common human tendency to believe that the grass is always greener – it's very easy to look around and see people who have more than you. But if you look around it is also easy to find people who have less.
- 2 I think there are some circumstances when the end never justifies the means, and I don't believe in an eye for an eye. I'm not sure why people say the more the merrier. It might be true sometimes, but quite often the opposite is true – having more people can spoil some things.
