Introduction

Grammarway 1 is the first book in a four-level grammar series presented in full colour. The book is designed for learners of the English language at Beginner level, and can be used for self-study or in the classroom as a supplement to any course at this level.

The aim of the book is to help learners understand basic English grammar structures through comprehensive theory tables and functional examples, accompanied by a wealth of attractive photographs and illustrations.

The book consists of 20 units, each focusing on a particular grammar topic.

A typical unit contains:

- presentation of the grammar structure by means of visual prompts
- simple, concise explanation of the grammar structures
- examples in everyday conversational English, together with a few expressions showing slightly more formal use
- exercises practising the new structures, to help learners use correct, appropriate patterns in everyday situations
- speaking and writing activities to practise the new structures in oral and written form

A revision unit follows every five units to consolidate material presented in previous units.

Games Section for students to practise grammar structures taught while having fun.

The Picture Flashcards which accompany the book can be used for lively, motivating presentation of the target grammar structures.

The book adheres to the principle that every structure should first be heard, then practised in oral and, finally, in written form. Based on the use of full-colour visual stimuli, the book encourages learners to speak before writing, and allows them to practise English structures through a variety of enjoyable and useful activities.

The Student's Book is accompanied by a Teacher's Book containing:

- guidance on presenting the theory of each unit, with or without Picture Flashcards
- a full key to the exercises in the Student's Book
- four tests in two separate versions each

Adverbs of Frequency

We use adverbs of frequency with the present simple. They show us how often something happens and include the following:

never	often seldom/rarely	usually sometimes	always

Adverbs of frequency go before the main verbs in simple tenses (work, drink, etc.).

e.g. I usually work on Saturdays.

They never drink coffee.

But they go after the verb to be in simple tenses.

e.g. It is often cold in winter.

He is always late for work.

Adverbs of frequency go after auxiliary verbs (can, do, etc.).

e.g. He can never wake up before 10 o'clock.

Short Answers

In short answers we only use Yes or No, the subject pronoun (I, you, he, etc.) and the auxiliary verb do/don't or does/doesn't. We do not repeat the main verb.

Do you ...?

Yes, I/we do.

No, I/we don't.

Does he/she/it ...?

Yes, he/she/it does.

No, he/she/it doesn't.

Do they ...?

No, they don't.

Adjectives/Adverbs

James is a racing driver.
He is young and famous. He's got a fast car.
Racing drivers never drive slowly. They drive very fast.

◆ An adjective describes a noun. Adjectives go before nouns. They can also be used alone after the verb to be. They have the same form in the singular and plural. e.g. This is a big house. He is poor. They are poor. (NOT: They are poor)

◆ An adverb describes a verb. It shows how, where, when or how often someone does something. Adverbs usually go after verbs.

e.g. He walks slowly. (How does he walk? Slowly - adverb of manner), John is here. (Where is he? Here - adverb of place), He wakes up early. (When does he wake up? Early - adverb of time)

Sometimes adverbs go before the main verb, e.g. the adverbs of frequency (often, always, etc.).
e.g. She often visits her parents.

◆ Formation of adverbs

◆ There are two types of questions:

a) Questions with Yes/No answers

These kinds of questions begin with an auxiliary verb (e.g. is, are, have, has, will, can, do does, did, etc.) and then the subject. We usually answer these questions with Yes/No answers. e.g. Are you watching TV? Yes, I am./Have you finished yet? No, I haven't./Can you type? No, I can't. When the main verb is in the present simple (play, works, etc.) we form the question with the auxiliary verb do/does. e.g. Do you play golf every Saturday? Yes, I do./Does he work hard? No, he doesn't. When the main verb is in the past simple (arrived, sent, etc) we form the question with the auxiliary verb did. e.g. Did she arrive early last night? Yes, she did./Did they send you a letter? No, they didn't.

b) Wh- questions

Wh- questions begin with a question word. We put the auxiliary verb before the subject.

people	things	place	time	quantity/number	manner	reason	age who	what	where	when	How much	how	why	how old whose	which		how long (ago)	How many how often Question Tags

- Question tags are short questions at the end of a statement. We mainly use them in speech when we want to confirm something or when we want to find out if something is true or not.

They're very small, aren't they?

Rabbits don't eat meat, do they?

A tiger has got stripes, hasn't it?

- We form a question tag with the auxiliary verb and the appropriate personal pronoun.
e.g. Rita can speak French, can't she?
You have spent a lot of money, haven't you?
- When the verb of the sentence is in the present simple, we form the question tag with the auxiliary verb do, does and the personal pronoun. When the verb is in the past simple, we form the question tag with the auxiliary verb did and the personal pronoun.
e.g. He likes golf, doesn't he?
Kevin went to Rome last year, didn't he?

- When the statement is positive, the question tag is negative.
e.g. She was at home, wasn't she?
He lives in a flat, doesn't he?
- When the statement is negative, the question tag is positive.
e.g. They haven't finished yet, have they?
She won't come to the party, will she?
- When the sentence contains a word with a negative meaning like never, hardly, seldom or rarely, the question tag is positive.
e.g. He is never late, is he?
They seldom go to the theatre, do they?
- Some verbs/expressions form question tags differently. Study the following examples.

I am → aren't I?

Imperative → will/won't you?

Let's → shall we?

Don't → will you?

I have (got) → haven't I?
(=possess)

I have → don't I?

There is/are → isn't/aren't there?

This/That is → isn't it?

I am strong, aren't I?

Close the door, will/won't you?

Let's go out, shall we?

Don't shout, will you?

She's got a sister, hasn't she?

You have a shower
every day, don't you?

There is a man in the room, isn't there?

That's Mary's coat,
isn't it?

MELAL LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

Intonation

- When we are sure of the answer and expect agreement, the voice goes down in the question tag.

e.g. *This is a castle,
isn't it?*

- When we aren't sure of the answer and we want information, the voice goes up in the question tag.

e.g. She isn't married, is she?

UNIT 18

Modal Verbs

Modal verbs are verbs that go before other verbs. They include can, could, may, must, needn't, will, shall. They do not take an -s, -ing, or -ed suffix. They cannot be used in all the tenses, for example the modal verb must only appears in the present simple. Modal verbs are always followed by the root form of another verb.

e.g. He can play basketball. (NOT: He can ~~plays~~ basketball.)

Can/Could/May

NOW

Peter is ten years old.
He can read and write.

THEN

When Peter was eight months old, he couldn't read or write, but he could play with his toys.

- The modal verb can in the present simple shows that someone has the ability to do something (see Unit 4). In the past simple it becomes could and shows that someone had the ability to do something in the past. We form questions by putting can or could before the subject. e.g. Can they run? / Could they run?

We form negations by putting the word not after can or could. e.g. They cannot/can't run fast. / They could not/couldn't run fast.

Affirmative

I could run
You could run
He could run
She could run
It could run
We could run
You could run
They could run

Negative

Long form

I could not run
You could not run
He could not run
She could not run
It could not run
We could not run
You could not run
They could not run

Short form

I couldn't run
You couldn't run
He couldn't run
She couldn't run
It couldn't run
We couldn't run
You couldn't run
They couldn't run

Interrogative

Could I run?
Could you run?
Could he run?
Could she run?
Could it run?
Could we run?
Could you run?
Could they run?

1

Fill in the short forms as in the example.

Use

e.g. He can speak French.
- to make a request.
e.g. Can you help me with my homework, please?
- to ask permission.
e.g. Can I go out, please?

We use could to express ability in the past.

e.g. He could play football when he was young.

Short Answers

In short answers we only use Yes or No, the personal pronoun and the verb could/couldn't. We do not repeat the whole question.

e.g. Could you ride a bicycle when you were eight?
Yes, I could./No, I couldn't.

Could you ...?

Yes, I/we could.

No, I/we couldn't.

Could he/she/it ...?

Yes, he/she/it could.

No, he/she/it couldn't.

Unit 20 – Both/Neither-All/None (What's wrong?)

Tell Ss to form pairs. Prepare the 10 cards with student errors using "Both/Neither – All/None". Give each pair a copy of the ten cards. Lay the cards face down on each desk. The first student takes a card and reads it to the other student. The second student must decide which sentence is the correct one. If he/she is right, he/she gets that card. If he/she is wrong the first student takes it. The winner is the student with the most cards.
