Introduction

Rob Hi. My name's Rob Walker.
 I live here in London, I work in London, and I write about London!
 I work for a magazine called London 24seven.
 I write about life in London. The people, the theater, the restaurants... It's fun!
 I love London. It's a great city.

Jenny Hi. My name's Jenny Zielinski.
 I'm from New York. The number one city in the world.
 I'm the assistant editor of a magazine, New York 24seven. I'm the new assistant editor.
 But this week, I'm on a business trip to London.
 This is my first time in the UK.
 It's very exciting!

Checking in

Receptionist Good evening, madam.

Jenny Hello. I have a reservation. My name's Jennifer Zielinski.

Receptionist Can you spell that, please?

Jenny Z-I-E-L-I-N-S-K-I...

Receptionist For five nights?

Jenny Yes, that's right.

Receptionist Can I have your passport, please?

Jenny Just a second... Here you are.

Receptionist Thank you. Can you sign here, please? Thank you.
 Here's your key. It's room 306, on the third floor. The lift is over there.

Jenny The lift? Oh, the elevator.

Receptionist Yes. Enjoy your stay, Ms. Zielinski.

Jenny Thank you.

Jenny talks to Rob

Waitress Is your tea OK?

Jenny Yes, thank you... It's very quiet this evening.

Waitress Yes, very relaxing! Are you on holiday?

Jenny No, I'm here on business.

Waitress Where are you from?

Jenny I'm from New York. What about you?

Waitress I'm from Budapest, in Hungary.

Jenny Really? Oh, sorry.

Waitress No problem.

Jenny Hello?

Rob Is that Jennifer?

Jenny Yes...

Rob This is Rob. Rob Walker... From London 24seven?

Jenny Oh Rob, yes, of course. Hi.

Rob Hi. How are you?

Jenny Oh, I'm fine, thanks. A little tired, that's all.

Rob I can meet you at the hotel tomorrow morning. Is nine OK for you?

Jenny That's perfect.

Rob Great. OK, see you tomorrow at nine.

Jenny Thanks. See you then. Bye.

Waitress Would you like another tea?

Jenny No, thanks. It's time for bed.

Waitress Good night, and enjoy your stay.

Jenny Good night

Have a safe trip!

Here are ten top tips to make your car trip safe.

Tip one: Plan your trip. Look at a map and plan where to stop on the way.

Tip two: Check your car. Is it ready for a long trip? Do it yourself or take it to a garage.

Tip three: Listen to traffic information on the radio, or check on the internet, before you start your trip.

Tip four: Take a map with you in the car, or have a map app on your phone – GPS isn't always right.

Tip five: Take bottles of water. People are often thirsty on long car trips.

Tip six: If you have children in the car, take books, games, and tablets with you. Then the children can watch videos or read. When children are quiet, the driver is less distracted.

Tip seven: Check that all the passengers in the car have their seat belts on.

Tip eight: Check that you have gas. Don't wait until your gas tank is nearly empty before you look for a gas station.

Tip nine: After driving for two hours, stop for fifteen minutes. Have a snack, and get some fresh air. If you're very tired, have a coffee or a drink with caffeine.

Finally, tip ten. This is very, very important. Don't use your phone. Calling and texting are very dangerous because you don't concentrate on the road.

Have a safe trip!

The Island of Okinawa

Okinawa is an island about four hundred miles south of Japan. It is a beautiful island, with wonderful beaches and clear blue water. It also has more centenarians – people who are a hundred years old or more – than anywhere else in the world. What's more, they seem to age more slowly than other people. According to scientists, people there who are actually seventy often have the bodies of fifty-year olds. Many of them are very healthy all through their lives.

What is their secret? Most people think it is because of their healthy lifestyle. They do not have big meals – they have a cultural habit called hara hachi, which means you always stop eating before you're full. They usually just have fish and vegetables, especially sweet potatoes, and they eat a lot of seaweed, which is one of the healthiest foods there is.

But diet is not the only reason why they live so long. The Okinawans are very active, and they often work in their garden until they're eighty or more. Many of them also do t'ai chi or martial arts, every day. They have a good social life. They visit friends or family, and a lot of them belong to community centers. Some play the traditional Okinawan guitar, an instrument similar to a banjo.

The old people of Okinawa are very positive and happy with their lives. They are not stressed, because they are never in a hurry. Their spiritual lives are important to them, especially the women, and many of them meditate every day.

In Okinawa, people say you're a child until you are fifty-five. And when you reach ninety-seven, your local town holds a special ritual called kajimaya to celebrate the fact that now it is time to be young again, to be free of all responsibilities and to simply enjoy life.

Eddie What are you doing right now? You aren't in the office. I can hear traffic.

Jenny Right now? I am standing outside a men's clothing store.

Eddie You're what?

Jenny I'm waiting for Rob...

Eddie Who's Rob? Do you have a new boyfriend already?

Jenny Don't be silly. He's just a guy from the office. He's buying a new shirt.

Eddie Wait a minute. So you're waiting for a guy named Rob outside a men's clothing store...?

Jenny Stop it. I don't have time to explain it all now.

Jenny Oh, here he is now. I have to go.

Eddie OK. Have fun!

Jenny Bye Eddie. Love you.

Rob So what do you think?

Jenny You cannot be serious.

Rob What's wrong? You don't like my new shirt?

Jenny No way! You can't wear that to an interview! Come on, let's go back into the store and change it.

Rob OK.

6C Video ListeningA Street Performer

This is Charlotte Campbell. She's twenty-five and she's a street performer, also known as a South Bank in London. Today, she's busking near the London Eye.

"On a typical day when I'm going busking, I get the train to Waterloo and I walk to the London Eye. I start about eleven o'clock and I play until one. Then I take a lunch break. And sometimes I stay until six or seven p.m. but in the winter when it gets dark, I go home a little earlier."

You can find buskers everywhere – On the streets, in shopping malls, outside restaurants and in the parks of most big cities. In some cities, you can also listen to music while you're on the subway. Buskers play or sing all kinds of different music – opera, jazz, pop, and folk.

"I like music that's on the radio, Ed Sheeran and things like that, and some older music from the 60s, like the Beatles."

But busking isn't always easy. Most big cities are busy and there are lots of buskers, which means you can't just play music wherever you like.

"You need to get a permit to busk in London, and pass an audition, but when you do, there's a really nice community and busking in London becomes easy."

So buskers like Charlotte have to choose an area in the city to sing and play in. They share this area with other buskers and sometimes they have to wait for the other buskers to finish.

Charlotte lives in Brixton, in South London. In her apartment, she writes her own songs and practices.

"I love writing songs. I love writing my own music."

For Charlotte, there are good and bad things about life as a busker.

"I like meeting new people and sharing my music with a new audience. I don't like it when it gets cold."

Practical English Episode 4

A free morning

Rob So, Jenny, we have a free morning. What do you want to do?

Jenny Well, you're the expert on London life! What do you suggest?

Rob Well, we can go cycling –

Jenny I don't have a bike.

Rob We can rent bikes. It's easy.

Jenny That's cool.

Rob OK, great. So, we can cycle through the parks, and you can see a bit of London.

Oh, hang on. Uh oh. It's Daniel. Daniel, hi!

Daniel Hi Rob. You need to do an interview this morning with an artist. He's at the Tate Modern.

Rob Can I do the interview on Monday?

Daniel Sorry, he can only do this morning.

Rob OK, send me the details.

Daniel Thank you very much, Rob.

Rob I'm sorry.

Jenny That's OK, I understand. Work is work!

Rob But I can meet you later, outside the Tate Modern. It's on the South Bank.

Jenny I can find it. I have a map, I can cycle there.

Rob Let's meet at twelve o'clock then.

Jenny Great.

Asking for directions

Jenny Excuse me, please. Where's the Tate Modern?

Passer-by one Sorry, I don't live here.

Jenny Excuse me. Is the Tate Modern near here?

Passer-by two The Tate Modern? It's near here, but I don't know exactly where. Sorry.

Jenny Thank you.

Jenny Excuse me. Can you tell me the way to the Tate Modern, please?

Passer-by three Yes, of course. Go straight on. Go past the church, then turn left at the traffic lights. And it's at the end of the street.

Jenny Sorry, could you say that again, please?

Passer-by three Yes, go straight on. Go past the church, then turn left at the traffic lights. And it's at the end of the street. You can't miss it!

Jenny Thank you.

Jenny Thank you.

Jenny and Rob go sightseeing

Rob Sorry about the weather.

Jenny Yeah ... but what a view! It's a great bridge, too.

Rob It's the Millennium Bridge. It's not for cars, only for people. It was the first new bridge over the Thames in 100 years –

Jenny You sound like a tour guide!

Rob Sorry...I interviewed the architect last year. So, what would you like to visit?

Jenny What is there to see?

Rob Well, we could see the Tate Modern first as we're here, and then we could go to the Globe Theatre. Do you like Shakespeare?

Jenny Not really. I studied too much Shakespeare in college.

Jenny It's Daniel.

Jenny Sorry. Hi, Daniel.

Daniel Hi, Jennifer. How's your free day? Are you enjoying London?

Jenny Absolutely. It's fantastic.

Daniel Listen, I have some free time today. Would you like to meet for lunch?

Jenny That's really nice of you, Daniel, but I'm sorry, I can't. I'm really far away from the office right now.

Daniel That's OK. No problem. Maybe another time?

Jenny Definitely. Bye.

Rob What did he want? Anything important?

Jenny Not at all. Hey, let's go inside the Tate Modern now.

Rob Yes, of course. There's a great restaurant on the top floor. The view is fantastic. The Tate Modern was a power station until 1981. Did you know that?

Jenny I didn't. Do you know anything else about the Tate Modern?

Rob Thank you for asking. I know a lot about it actually.

A haunted castle

Hi, I'm Ned. Welcome to Portchester Castle. Portchester Castle is over one thousand seven hundred years old. It's near Portsmouth, a city on the southern coast of England. The castle is part of English Heritage. English Heritage is a charity, which manages over four hundred old buildings and monuments in England.

With so many old buildings, there are also lots of reports of ghosts. And ghosts are sometimes a problem for staff members and visitors at English Heritage. In fact, some staff members decided to leave their jobs because of the ghosts. I've come here to Portchester to find out more about reports of not one, but four ghosts! And many of the ghosts come from different times in Portchester's long history.

Portchester Castle dates back to Roman Britain; the Romans built the original castle here in the year 290. The first ghost report also comes from Roman times. Visitors report that they see the ghost of a Roman soldier guarding the walls, but they say they don't feel frightened.

In the Middle Ages, Portchester became a favorite castle for the kings and queens of England. During this time, a small monastery was built. There's a church here now in place of the monastery. People say that they see a man dressed in black here and they think he is the ghost of a monk from the monastery.

Surprisingly, people don't feel frightened when they see him. They say that he disappears when they look at him.

Our first two ghosts are not frightening, but the next ghost really frightens people – the White Lady. Some people believe that this is the ghost of Charlotte White. She was a woman who visited the castle in the 19th century. Charlotte's baby fell into the water and poor Charlotte also died when she tried to save her child.

The most frightening ghost of all is a man on a black horse. Both castle visitors and staff members say that they see him. One of the staff members who saw the ghost said, "It got bigger and bigger. It started to come towards me and I screamed and ran away." People also say they hear the sound of horses; one visitor even heard the sound of horses on a video he filmed. One of the strange things about the man on the horse is that we don't know who he is or which part of Portchester's long history he is from.

I was sure I didn't believe in ghosts before I came here, but, after a day at Portchester, I'm not so sure.

It's written in the cards

Part 1

Jim Come in.

Jane Good afternoon. I want to see Madame Yolanda, the fortune-teller.

Jim Madame Yolanda is not here today. But don't worry. I'm going to tell you about your future. What questions do you want to ask?

Part 2

Jane Well, I have a problem with my boyfriend. We argue all the time. I'm not sure that he loves me. I want to know if we're going to stay together.

Jim Please choose five cards, but don't look at them. Ah, this is a good card. This means you're going to be very lucky.

Jane But am I going to stay with my boyfriend?

Jim Maybe. We need to look at the other cards first.

Part 3

Jim Mm, a house. A new house. You're going to move, very soon, to another country.

Jane But my boyfriend works here. He can't move to another country.

Jim Let's look at the next card. A heart. You're going to fall in love.

Jane Who with?

Jim Let me concentrate. I can see a tall, dark man. He's very attractive.

Jane Oh, that's Jim.

Jim Who's Jim? Your boyfriend?

Jane No. Jim is a man I met at a party last month. He's an actor, from New York. He says he's in love with me. It was his idea for me to come to Madame Yolanda.

Jim Well, the card says that you're going to fall in love with him.

Jane Are you sure? But what about my boyfriend?

Jim Let's look at the fourth card.

Part 4

Jim Now I can see everything clearly. You're going to leave your boyfriend and go away with the other man, with Jim...to another country. And very soon you're going to get married.

Jane Married? To Jim! But am I going to be happy with him?

Jim You're going to be very happy together. I'm sure of it.

Jane Oh no, look at the time. I'm going to be late for work.

Part 5

Yolanda So, what happened?

Jim It was perfect! She believed everything. I told you, I'm a very good actor. She was sure I was a fortune-teller! That's Jane's £50 and another £50 from me. Thanks very much, Madame Yolanda. Bye.

Yolanda Wait, young man! Don't travel with that girl – her plane is going to...

Mica Um, so the biggest difference between the US and the UK in New York City, uh food, very different here compared to the UK. Um, lots of burgers and pizza, and fast food and things like that.

Jenny's last morning

Jenny Rob!

Rob Jenny, hi. Sorry I'm a bit late.

Jenny No problem.

Rob Really?

Jenny Really!

Rob I got your message.

Jenny Would you like a coffee or something?

Rob No, I'm fine thanks. So what did you want to talk about? You think London is the best city in the world and you don't want to go home.

Jenny Not exactly... We'd like you to come to New York.

Rob Me? To New York?!

Jenny I talked to Barbara about you. You know, Barbara, my boss? She loves your articles, too. So...would you like to come over to New York and work for us. Just for a month. And write a column for New York 24seven. And maybe a daily blog?

Rob Wow, sounds great! What could I call it? An Englishman in New York?

Jenny Why not! Are you interested?

Rob Yes. Very. It's amazing! But I need to think about it.

Jenny Of course.

Rob When do I need to decide?

Jenny Before the end of the week?

Rob OK, great. Thank you.

Jenny And now, I really have to go.

Getting to the airport

Jenny Could you call me a taxi, please?

Receptionist Yes, of course. Where to?

Jenny To Paddington station.

Receptionist And when would you like it for?

Jenny Now, please.

Jenny How much is it?

Taxi driver That's 13.60, please.

Jenny Make it £15. And could I have a receipt?

Taxi driver Thank you very much, madam.

Jenny Could I have a ticket to Heathrow Airport, please?

Ticket clerk Single or return?

Jenny Single, please.

Ticket clerk Standard or first class?

Jenny Standard, please.

Ticket clerk That's £18.

Saying goodbye

Jenny Where is it? Where's my phone?!

Rob Are you looking for this?

Jenny Rob! I can't believe it! My phone! You're a hero, thank you so much.

Rob No problem. It gave me a chance to see you again. And I had more time to think about your offer.

Jenny And?

Rob I'd love to accept. I really want to come and work in New York.

Jenny That's great, Rob! I'm so happy.

Rob Me too. Oh, you had a call from Eddie. I didn't answer it. Is he going to meet you at the airport?

Jenny Eddie? No. He's at college in California.

Rob In California? Does he teach there?

Jenny Teach? No, he's a student.

Rob A student?

Jenny Well, he's only 19. Eddie's my brother.

Jenny I need to go.

Rob Well, have a good journey.

Jenny Thanks, Rob. Bye.

Rob Bye. And see you in New York!

12C Video ListeningJudi Dench – a life in acting

Judi Dench is one of a golden generation of actors who have had long and successful careers, including Maggie Smith, Vanessa Redgrave, Ian McKellen, Michael Caine, and Anthony Hopkins. She has acted in the theater, on TV, and in movies in a career of nearly sixty years.

Judith Olivia Dench was born on December 9th, 1934 near York in the northern part of England. Dench's father was a doctor, but she had connections from a very early age to the Theatre Royal in York – her father was the theater's doctor and her mother made costumes for the theater. As a teenager, Judi Dench acted in the York Mystery Plays. These religious plays have been performed in York every four years since the 14th century.

In the late 1950's and 1960's, she acted with several important theater companies: the Old Vic, the Royal Court, and the Royal Shakespeare Company.

In the 1970's and 1980's, Dench continued to work in the theater and on TV. In 1978, she acted in Shakespeare's Macbeth with the actor Ian McKellen, both in the theater and on film. Many people think it was one of the best performances of the play ever. She also appeared in movies like A Room with a View in 1985 and Henry V in 1989.

In the 1990's, her career changed with two movies. The first of these was the James Bond movie, GoldenEye, where Dench played Bond's boss, M, usually a part for a man. Dench was a great success in the part. She was hard, and at the same time funny. She played the part in eight movies, with both Pierce Brosnan and Daniel Craig as James Bond. The second movie that changed her career was Mrs. Brown in 1997. This small movie was a great success and she was nominated for an Oscar for Best Actress.

In 1998, she played Queen Elizabeth I in the comedy, Shakespeare in Love. The movie was another hit. It won the 1999 Oscar for Best Film, and Judi Dench won the Oscar for Best Supporting Actress. She's only in the movie for eight minutes, but, as usual, she was fantastic.

Review & Check

Can you understand these people? 11&12

1 Cara

Interviewer What are you doing in the US?
Cara I'm visiting from England. I'm just on holiday for one week.

Interviewer Was there anything that surprised you about the US when you arrived?

Cara Um, I was quite surprised by how busy New York is. Although I supposed I shouldn't have been because it's one of the biggest cities. Um, and there are lots of nice places to eat as well.

2 Madeleine

Interviewer How do people in your country drive?

Madeleine I think it depends where you are. Where I live in Oregon, everything is very safe, much slower, but in New York City everything is very fast, very dangerous.

Interviewer Are you a typical driver for where you live, for Oregon?

Madeleine I would say so, I drive, I'm a very cautious driver.

3 Chris

Interviewer Do you have any ambitions for this year?

Chris Um, yes, I'd like to visit my daughter in Australia, and also plan towards my retirement.

Interviewer Do you think you're going to do them?

Chris Certainly the planning, whether or not I achieve the visit is something else.

4 Susan

Interviewer Have you ever seen a movie more than three times?

Susan I've seen Casablanca many times, and I still think it's one of the best films made.

Interviewer What do you like about it?

Susan Everything. I like the direction, the lighting. I like each of the stars. The story has romance and intrigue. I like stories about World War II. Uh, I love Claude Raines, Humphry Bogart. There's like nothing not to like about that movie.

5 Martin

Interviewer What phone do you have?

Martin I have an iPhone.

Interviewer How old is it?

Martin I believe, I believe my iPhone is now two years old.

Interviewer How often do you change phones?

Martin Um, I change phones maybe every three years.

Interviewer What do you use it for the most?

Martin I mostly use my phone for social media.
